10. Sign and date the application
11. The application must be notarized.

Please complete this application in its entirety; an incomplete application will delay analysis and approval of your development order.

Step Two: Analysis

Once a complete application is filed with the Department of Community Development, the application is processed and routed to the reviewing departments. After the analysis is complete, the applicant will receive from the Department of Community Development a statement of whether or not there are sufficient public facilities for the development.

If facilities are available, this statement will indicate the fees required from the applicant to reserve capacity of these facilities.

The applicant will have ninety (90) days from the date on the statement to pay the reservation of capacity fees. After these ninety days have elapsed, the concurrency test must be applied for again.

Reservation of capacity must be paid prior to the issue of any final development order.
