The Contractor will furnish all labor, materials, tools, transportation and equipment necessary to provide services to Lake County in accordance with the specifications listed. Prices must be quoted per estimated hours. Actual hours are unknown and are estimated for evaluation purposes only.

All personnel proposed by the vendor must be listed on the attached Team Composition Form (Attachment 4), to include correlation to one of the acceptable licensure categories listed, with copies of current licenses, references and availability for each such designated individual. Rates quoted in proposals shall include travel and all other incidental costs.

Line Items 1 & 2: Plans Reviewer. The hourly and daily rates proposed by the vendor for this work category must presume that the individual performing this function will be located at either the vendor's facility or at the County Administration Building with the support specified in paragraph 2.4 of the Statement of Work. The daily rate shall consist of plan review effort for an eight (8) hour period on a single working day.

Line Items 3-7: Inspector Services. The hourly and daily rates proposed by the vendor for this work category must presume that the individual performing this function will receive assignments electronically via a County-provided device and proceed to specific assignments during the course of the day. The hourly rate shall include all travel and associated costs for performing the service with billing to commence upon receipt of assignments and continue until completion of effort at the final work location each day. The daily rate shall include all travel and associated costs for performing inspection services for eight (8) hours on a single working day. The County will state in its request for service which type of inspector is required. Should the requested type of inspector not be available, and the vendor provides a higher licensed inspector, the County shall be invoiced at the lower inspector rate.

Line Item 8: Fire Plans Reviewer Services. The hourly and daily rates proposed by the vendor for this work category must presume that the individual performing this function will be located at either the vendor's facility or at the County Administration Building with the support specified in paragraph 2.4 of the Statement of Work. The daily rate must consist of plan review effort for an eight (8) hour period on a single working day.

Line Item 9: Fire Inspector Services. The hourly and daily rates proposed by the vendor for this work category must presume that the individual performing this function will receive assignments electronically via a County-provided device and proceed to specific assignments during the course of the day. The hourly rate shall include all travel and associated costs for performing the service with billing to commence upon receipt of assignments and continue until completion of effort at the final work location each day. The daily rate must include all travel and associated costs for performing inspection services for eight (8) hours on a single working day.
