

6 – Financial Stability

CEC has the necessary resources (human and financial) to provide the services at the level required by the County. We provide similar and more complex services for a variety of private and public clients throughout Florida and nationwide. CEC can provide a statement if requested by the County.