Marlene,

Last week, as promised, I received an e-mail status update from Mr. Don Lunko with Lennar Homes. He indicates that the discussion has now made it to corporate headquarters, who asked him for additional information which he immediately provided. He also promises to keep pushing for an answer from them.

Although my reply of thanks for his efforts and my offer of assistance did not include any timeframes for and/or expected actions, I do expect to hear from him again within the next two weeks. If not, I will contact him to find out the status and to discuss my/our next move toward resolution.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact me at your earliest convenience,
