

Requests for Fire Incident or Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Reports and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Privacy Policy

How to Obtain a Fire or EMS Report

The Lake County Office of Fire Rescue generates an incident report for every call for service including fire and medical responses. We comply with the Florida Public Records Law, as well as the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and other applicable medical confidentiality parameters. To obtain a copy of a Fire or EMS/Medical report, please contact our office at 352-343-9458 or visit our main office located at 315 W. Main Street, Suite 411, Tavares, FL, on Monday through Friday, 8am to 5pm, excluding holidays. To serve you better, please call ahead so we may locate the report for you in advance of your arrival and advise you of the copying fee. Please note that reports sometimes may be delayed if they are awaiting completion, missing information, or archived off-site.

EMS/Medical Reports are restricted in disclosure in accordance with the HIPAA. In order to obtain a complete copy of an EMS/Medical Report, you must provide one of the following:

1. A Picture ID that shows you are the patient listed on the EMS/Medical Report.
2. An "Authorization to Disclose Specific Protected Health Information" form signed by the patient, together with a copy of the patient picture ID.
3. Documentation showing that you are the legal custodian or medical surrogate of the patient if the patient is a minor, orphan, elderly person or other circumstance.
4. A court order or legal authorization through records subpoena by a law firm representing you, the patient, as its client.

NOTE:

For your protection and privacy, we are unable to release health information over the phone, by e-mail, fax, text messaging, or other electronic methods as these are unsecure networks that may be accessible to others.

These procedures are required for compliance with the HIPAA and other medical confidentiality legislation to assure the protection of your private health care information. We appreciate your understanding as we comply with federal law.

Copies of MEDICAL TRANSPORT REPORTS must be requested and picked up through Lake County Office of Emergency Medical Services

PRIVACY PRACTICES – DISCLOSURE

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Lake County Fire Rescue is required by law to maintain the privacy of certain confidential health care information, known as Protected Health Information (PHI), and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. Lake County Fire Rescue is also required to abide by the terms of the version of this Notice currently in effect.

Uses and Disclosures of PHI: Lake County Fire Rescue may use PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations, in most cases without your written permission. Examples of our use of your PHI:

For Treatment: This includes such things as obtaining verbal and written information about your medical condition and treatment from you as well as from others, such as doctors and nurses who give orders to allow us to provide treatment to you. We may give your PHI to other health care providers involved in your treatment, and may transfer your PHI via radio or telephone to the hospital or dispatch center.

For Health Care Operations: This includes quality assurance activities, licensing, and training programs to ensure that our personnel meet our standards of care and follow established policies and procedures, as well as certain other management functions.

Use and Disclosure of PHI without your Authorization: The Lake County Fire Rescue is permitted to use PHI without your written authorization, or opportunity to object in certain situations, and unless prohibited by a more stringent state law, including:

1. For the treatment or health care operations activities of another health care provider who treats you;
2. For health care and legal compliance activities;
3. To a family member, other relative, or close personal friend or other individual involved in your care if we obtain your written agreement to do so or if we give you an opportunity to object to such a disclosure and you do not raise an objection, and in certain other circumstances where we are unable to obtain your agreement and believe the disclosure is in your best interests;
4. To a public health authority in certain situations as required by law (such as to report abuse, neglect or domestic violence);
5. For health oversight activities including audits or government investigations, inspections, disciplinary proceedings, and other administrative or judicial actions undertaken by the government (or their contractors) by law to oversee the health care system;
6. For judicial and administrative proceedings as required by a court or administrative order, or in some cases in response to a subpoena or other legal process;
7. For law enforcement activities in limited situations, such as when responding to a warrant;
8. For military, national defense and security and other special government functions;
9. To avert a serious threat to the health and safety of a person or the public at large;
10. For workers' compensation purposes, and in compliance with workers' compensation laws; To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors for identifying a deceased person, determining cause of death, or carrying on their duties as authorized by law;
11. If you are an organ donor, we may release health information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ donation and transplantation;
12. For research projects, but this will be subject to strict oversight and approvals;

13. We may also use or disclose health information about you in a way that does not personally identify you or reveal who you are.

Any other use or disclosure of PHI, other than those listed above will only be made with your written authorization. You may revoke your authorization at any time, in writing, except to the extent that we have already used or disclosed medical information in reliance on that authorization.

Patient Rights: As a patient, you have a number of rights with respect to your PHI, including:

The Right to Access: You have the right to copy or inspect your PHI. This means you may inspect and copy most of the medical information about you that we maintain. We will normally provide you with access to this information within 30 days of your request. We may also charge you a reasonable fee for you to copy any medical information that you have the right to access. In limited circumstances, we may deny you access to your medical information, and you may appeal certain types of denials. We have available forms to request access to your PHI and we will provide a written response if we deny you access and let you know your appeal rights. You also have the right to receive confidential communications of your PHI. If you wish to inspect and copy your medical information, you should contact our Medical Records Privacy Officer, Tina Chavez – Office Manager at 352.343.9458.

The Right to amend your PHI: You have the right to ask us to amend written medical information that we may have about you. We will generally amend your information within 60 days of your request and will notify you when we have amended the information. We are permitted by law to deny your request to amend your medical information only in certain circumstances, such as when you ask us to amend information about you that we believe is currently correct as is. If you wish to request that we amend the medical information that we have about you, you should contact our privacy officer.

The Right to Request an Accounting: You may request an accounting from us of certain disclosures of your medical information that we have made in the six years prior to the date of your request. We are not required to give you an accounting of information we have used or disclosed for purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations, or when we share your health information with our business associates, such as billing services company, transporting ambulance company or a medical facility from/to which you were transported. We are also not required to give you an accounting of our uses of protected health information for which you have already given us written authorization. If you wish to request an accounting, contact our privacy officer.

The Right to Request that we restrict the Uses and Disclosures of your PHI: You have the right to request that we restrict how we use and disclose your medical information that we have about you. Lake County Fire Rescue is not required to agree to any restrictions you request, but any restrictions agreed to by Lake County Fire Rescue in writing are binding on Lake County Fire Rescue.

Internet, Electronic Mail, and the Right to Obtain Copy of Paper Notice on Request: If we maintain a web site, we will prominently post a copy of this Notice on our web site. If you allow us, we will forward you this Notice by electronic mail instead of on paper and you may always request a paper copy of the Notice.

Revisions to the Notice: Lake County Fire Rescue reserves the right to change the terms of this Notice at any time, and the changes will be effective immediately and will apply to all protected health information that we maintain. Any material changes to the Notice will be promptly posted in our facilities and posted to our web site, if we maintain one. You can get a copy of the latest version of this Notice by contacting our privacy officer.

Your Legal Rights and Complaints: You also have the right to complain to us, or to the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint with us or to the government. Should you have any questions, comments or complaints you may direct all inquiries to our privacy officer.
